

Join ACOE School Wellness & Safety Programs for our:

Trends in Alcohol & Drugs Workshop

Discover prevention and intervention strategies that work for adolescents as well as tips on dealing with students who are drunk or high on campus.

Guest Speaker

Janine Y. Saunders, MPH
Program Manager, ACOE School Wellness & Safety. Janine has worked in health education for a dozen years and has experience providing substance abuse prevention education.

This workshop will provide a foundation for educators who would like to expand their knowledge of the substances that our students are most likely to use and abuse. An overview of alcohol, tobacco, illicit drugs, and prescription medications will be presented along with how these substances impact youth and the risks involved. The impact of substance use on the developing adolescent brain will be discussed and tips on having these discussions with youth will be presented. Prevention and intervention strategies that work with adolescents will be presented along with tips on dealing with students who are drunk or high on campus.
